Organisational membership

Organisations who provide services to single mothers or support the aims and objectives of CSMC can apply to become organisational members of CSMC. Organisational membership is $55 per year and includes subscription to Scarlet Letter, notice of forums, workshops and conferences, and information about our latest research and publications. Copies of our publications are available at a very reasonable cost.

Organisational members do not have voting rights and representatives of your organisation can not be elected to the board unless they are otherwise an ordinary member. Your application for organisational membership is subject to approval by the CSMC Board.
